7 Over 7

An indulgent wellness brand to soothe all the senses, 7 Over 7 was founded by London-based yoga and meditation coach Minal Bhanshali to inspire and relax. Bhanshali created seven candles (right) to evoke specific emotions. From invigorating combinations of florals and spices to evoke love or creativity, to subtle and calming scents designed to be more grounding, these unique fragrances are ideal for adding a touch of spiritual sophistication to your home. For those who meditate, the perfume-like layers of scent are specifically designed to add to the sensory experience, helping to achieve a deeper state of flow. Each candle comes beautifully packaged in refillable, handcrafted ceramic pots – a tactile touch for a product designed to help you breathe in, and let go. Scent-sational.

Code 11.59 by Audemars Piguet Grande Sonnerie Carillon Supersonnerie

The newest novelty in the Code 11.59 by Audemars Piguet collection, the Grande Sonnerie Carillon Supersonnerie timepiece (left) is endowed with a unique bespoke Grand Feu enamel dial, crafted by Anita Porchet. Powered by the Code 11.59's new hand-wound movement, the calibre 2956, the carillon of the Grande Sonnerie timepiece provides the high acoustic performance of a pocket watch. Not only does this allow for the timepiece's three gongs and hammers to strike the quarter hour with three successive notes instead of two, but in the 'petite sonnerie' position the minute repeater chimes just the hours. Automatic chiming can also be deactivated, if you wish, when in silent mode. A timeless blend of music and art.

Rolls-Royce Ghost

The most highly anticipated luxury car launch of the season has arrived. The Rolls-Royce Ghost is the epitome of beauty in restraint, a sleek saloon that retains an old-world charm while proving the marque's most technologically advanced car yet. Built on the brand's proprietary aluminium spaceframe architecture, the Ghost (right) features all-wheel drive and all-wheel steering for poise and surefootedness and the world-first planar suspension system, which significantly increases agility – all powered by a hallmark 6.75-litre twin-turbo V12 engine delivering 571PS and 850nm. Inside, driver comfort is enhanced by Rolls-Royce's acoustic technology, which keeps noise levels to a specific resonant frequency to create a sense of serenity, while the new illuminated fascia features the Ghost nameplate surrounded by more than 850 stars for an ethereal evolution of its stunning starlight headliner. Reach for the stars – from the comfort of your seat.

5 Blackwell Fine Jamaican Rum 007 Limited Edition
 Launched in anticipation of the release of the newest Bond film, No Time To Die (now delayed until April 2021), Blackwell's 007 Limited Edition is an aged, rich and fragrant dark gold rum, inspired by founder Chris Blackwell's family recipe and filled with the warmth and sensuality of Jamaica. "This is a rum that celebrates Jamaica, my friendships, and also my family legacy," adds Blackwell, the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame producer and owner of the GoldenEye Resort – the luxury hotel resort that was once the Caribbean bolthole of Bond author Ian Fleming. The limited-edition rum (left) features a unique AR experience, available via a QR code on the bottle, where Blackwell, who is best known for discovering Bob Marley, comes to life to share life stories, music selections and cocktail recipes – shaken, not stirred.

6 Bentley x Naim and Focal
 Bentley Motors has collaborated with specialist audio brands Naim and Focal on two unique audio speakers designed for music lovers: the Naim Mu-So for Bentley Special Edition wireless speaker system and the Focal for Bentley Radiance Headphones. Both (right) take design cues from Bentley's Mulliner Bacalar and EXP 100 GT electric concept car, featuring copper accents and a recurring lattice pattern inspired by the headlights. The limited-edition Naim Mu-So combines audio expertise with the latest music-streaming technology, and is finished in sustainable African hardwood. Focal's Radiance Headphones feature earcups made from Pittards gloving leather, while high-quality audio components are tuned to share the sonic signature of the Mu-So. Automotive style has never sounded so good...

9 Steinway & Sons Apassionata
 Limited to just 10 pieces, Steinway & Sons' Apassionata grand piano (right) has been created in tribute to celebrate the 250th anniversary of Ludwig Van Beethoven's birth. Named for the composer's Piano Sonata No. 23 in F Minor op. 57 (more commonly known as Appassionata), the specially designed piano is based on the brand's B-211 grand piano model and features excerpts of the sonata's score over the case and inside the lid. The Steinway grand is also equipped with the innovative, self-playing Spirio system, allowing the player to enjoy a variety of music, recorded by renowned Steinway artists. For each Apassionata sold, Steinway & Sons will donate €10,000 to the German Orchestra Foundation to support musicians in Germany. Music to anyone's ears...

7 Sketch Lecture Room & Library
 Sketch London is Mayfair's most avant garde restaurant, bar and lounge, consistently namechecked as one of the world's most beautiful venues. From the Gallery dining room's flamingo-pink décor and permanent exhibit of work by British artist David Shrigley, to the Parlour cocktail bar with its quirky interiors (including chair legs dressed in ballet shoes), this artistic venue by restaurateur Mourad Mazouz has something for all tastes. We particularly enjoy Pierre Gagnaire's three Michelin-starred Lecture Room & Library (left): from grandly domed, plushly-decorated dining room to its selection of decadent seven-course tasting menus, it is entirely too much. And too much, in perfect Sketch style, is just enough.

10 Aqua Shard Peter Pan Afternoon Tea
 Add a touch of magic to your afternoon tea with Aqua Shard's whimsical tribute to author and playwright JM Barrie. In partnership with Great Ormond Street Hospital Children's Charity (GOSH), the Peter Pan Afternoon Tea is inspired by the character's adventures in Neverland, all served on an awe-inspiring model of Captain Hook's pirate ship (left). A savoury selection of treats includes finger sandwiches and mushroom stool bread, 'codfish' brandade croquettes complete with pastry hook. Creatively named desserts feature Tinker Bell cookies, Tick-Tock the Crocodile and Hook's Perish Cake. Accompanied by Aqua Shard's Fairy Dust cocktail or Darling Tea, it's enough to make anyone believe in magic...🧚‍♀️
